Sponsors

Sponsors, or godparents, are often named as those who will assist the child in being raised as a Christian. It is not necessary to have sponsors if it is your intention to raise your child in the Christian faith. However, if and when sponsors are named, those individuals need to be practicing, baptized Christians.

A copy of the sponsor's baptismal certificate or a letter from the congregation, wherein the sponsor was baptized as well as a record from the congregation they are currently a member, needs to be presented, if the sponsor is not a member of this congregation.
